INTRODUCTION...

- Most companies offer two options: a daily rate plus a charge per kilometer or a daily rate that include free kilometres and sometimes even fuel
- The cost of renting a car depends on the type of car, the rental period, and the kilometers traveled.
- Rates are calculated on a 24-hour period from the time you sign the rental contract until the return of the vehicle.
- Most companies do allow a 30 minute to 1 hour "grace period" on the final day of return as a gesture of goodwill

INTRODUCTION ...

- Late returns will result in an extra day being charged.
- The minimum rate charged will be for a period of 24 hours.
- All rates are quoted per day in the currency of the country of rental origin.
- Generally the longer you rent the car the cheaper it becomes
- Some companies offer specials and charge only for two days on weekends even if you have the car for three days.

Conditions to rent a vehicle

- Valid drivers licence
- Credit card number and expiry date -
- Credit card name same as the driver
- The car group you prefer,
- The date of rental
- Collection and delivery locations

TERMINOLOGY IN CAR RENTAL

Insurances

What is Collision Damage Waiver (CDW)?

It's an option that limits renters of the financial liability (excess) in the event of damage to the vehicle and/or any part thereof.

Super Collision Damage Waiver (SCDW) -

Further reduces the amount of liability (excess) that the renter is responsible for in the event of accident damage.

Insurances...

- Theft Loss Waiver (TLW) - Reduces the amount of the liability that the renter is responsible for in the event of theft.
- Super Theft Loss Waiver (STLW) - Further reduces the liability that the renter is responsible for in the event of theft.

Personal Accident Insurance (PAI)

- Offered mostly as a third party product - it covers the renter in the event of a collision.
- At most companies this is an optional insurance.
- Covers accidents supports, deaths, repatriation, medical expenses, and accommodation costs if necessary

Tourism Levy

- All rates are subject to a 1% Tourism levy on net time and kilometre charges in South Africa only.
- The fee is payable to SA TOURISM, to be used to promote South Africa as a tourism destination.
